

MUSLIM SOCIAL SERVICES of KITCHENER-WATERLOO

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Muslim Social Services wishes to announce to new staff people in our organization:

- Ms. Duaa Al-Aghar has been hired as executive director. Ms. Al-Aghar has received many awards for her volunteer work. She has worked in web designer and as a data base specialist at Islamic Humanitarian Services for eleven years.
- Ms. Farhat Javed has been hired as part time counselor. Ms. Javed has over 27 years as a social worker and counselor with various agencies in the Waterloo Region. In her career, she has specialized in trauma counseling.

Both are bringing skills and increasing the effectiveness of our organization and its services to people in the region.

In 2021, Muslim Social Services board has decided to be a regional agency, will be changing its name to Muslim Social Services of Waterloo Region. Staff will be working in Cambridge as well as Kitchener-Waterloo

The board will be hiring a part time Muslim male counselor, who can speak one or more languages of Muslims in our region. There have been numerous requests to work with male youth and young adults as well as begin groups for fathers. We are working to meet these needs.

We'll have a fresh look for our website in the new year. Our social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter are updated with our recent running programs such as counselling services, stages for all ages and One story two sides.

Muslim Social Services staff are working in the office currently. More and more of our groups are in-person at local community centres.
